16 June 2022

Favourable market trend expected despite high uncertainty

After the record-high FY 2021 results, Q1 22 sales (+29.5% Y/Y) flagged ongoing strong demand for food supplements and healthy snacks. Although the input cost inflation and the slowdown in Europe's GDP growth raise concerns, Enervit's positioning remains solid. Sales price hikes and the operating leverage effect ought to mitigate the impact on profitability substantially. Following the rollover of our DCF model, we have increased our TP to EUR 4.40 per share (from EUR 4.20).

- The FY 21 results marked the complete recovery in Enervit's revenues, which grew by 24.9% Y/Y to EUR 64.8m (+2.5% vs. FY 19). Indeed, after a strong H1 21 (+35.5% Y/Y), and despite the fact that gyms and swimming pools were shut down between January and the beginning of June, the company continued to perform strongly in H2 (+15.1% Y/Y). FY 21 EBITDA reached EUR 8.5m, with a sound 13.1% EBITDA margin, thanks to the increased sales and the lingering effect of the cost containment measures put in place by the management during the previous year.
- The management said that sales in the first few months of 2022 were in line with their estimates and that the brand enhancement strategy was set to continue. For the time being, uncertainty and volatility remain high, due to the impacts of the Russo-Ukrainian crisis and a possible resurgence of the Covid pandemic, including the related supply chain disruptions. Although no impacts on Enervit's operations have been recorded, the management could not rule out possible impacts on the Italian business unit's sales due to a general slowdown. In any case, the online sales channel is expected to mitigate these headwinds.
- Based on the strong sales recovery in FY 21, the promising start to the year and the management's foregoing indications, we estimate FY 22e sales could increase by 20.5% Y/Y. Profitability-wise, the sharp increase in raw materials, packaging and energy costs are expected to weigh on the company's FY 22 profitability, as are the resumed marketing investments needed to keep a competitive edge in a growing but challenging market. Although we have increased our FY 22 EBITDA margin to 11.7% (vs. our previous 10%), we highlight that it compares with a FY21 EBITDA margin of 13.1% (vs. our 10.2% assumption). For the biennium 2023-24, we expect a further sales improvement (CAGR of ~+11%) while we prudentially project less-than-proportional EBITDA CAGR of ~+6%.
- Enervit has published its first document, called the "Document of commitments" ("Carta degli Impegni"), outlining its commitment to integrating sustainability principles into the group's operations. The document describes actions under three main areas: Environment, People and Community, Innovation and Transparency.
- In light of the foregoing estimates and based on our DCF model (WACC raised to 7.5% from 7.1%, and perpetual growth 2.0%), we have increased our Target Price to EUR 4.40 per share (from EUR 4.20). We confirm our Accumulate recommendation.

FY 21 results analysis

The FY 21 results marked the complete recovery of Enervit's revenues, which grew by 24.9% Y/Y to EUR 64.8m (+2.5% vs. FY 19). Indeed, after a strong H1 21 (+35.5% Y/Y), and despite the fact that gyms and swimming pools were shut down between January and the beginning of June, the company continued to perform strongly in H2 (+15.1% Y/Y).

The rebound was strong in all the business lines. Italian sales were up by 26.0% Y/Y (accounting for 80.6% of total sales), while Foreign sales increased by 18.9% Y/Y (13.0% of total sales). Direct sales increased by 24.1% Y/Y (accounting for 2.9% of total sales), driven by the e-commerce channel. Third-party processing sales increased by 24.5% and accounted for 3.5% of sales.

Quarterly sales evolution, 2019/21 (EURm)

Source: Company data

FY 21 EBITDA reached EUR 8.5m, with a sound 13.1% EBITDA margin, thanks to the increased sales and the lingering effect of the cost containment measures put in place during the previous year. Profitability was particularly strong in H1 21 (15.5% margin), while in H2 it stood at 10.4%, in line with the group's historical average.

FY 21 EBIT turned positive, standing at EUR 4.6m (vs. EUR 2.0m loss in FY 20); the improvement was directly linked to the better EBITDA performance and the EUR 1.2m impairment loss booked in H1 20, mainly due to the Swedish subsidiary, which was sold at the end of 2020.

The FY 21 net profit was EUR 3.6m, vs. the EUR 1.9m loss booked in FY 20, and benefitted from the better operating performance.

The group closed FY 2021 with a net debt position of EUR 2.3m, compared with the FY 20 net debt of EUR 11.0m. Excluding the IFRS 16 liabilities, Enervit reached a net cash position of EUR 2.1m, compared with a EUR 6.1m net debt at the end of FY 2020, i.e. an improvement of EUR 8.2m Y/Y.

Back on air: resuming marketing strategy to tap into a dynamic market

Market conditions and demand continued to be favourable. After the H1 2021 lockdowns and in spite of the resurgence of the pandemic in November 2021-January 2022, data on pharmacy turnover (source: New Line) show that the sales of dietary products started recovering decently in H2. Indeed, the total turnover was broadly flat Y/Y (-0.2% vs. -1.6% in H1 21) and the trend continued in Q1 22, as sales grew by 1.4% Y/Y.

After the tight cost management measures needed to cope with the effects of the pandemic's most acute phase, Enervit has resumed its marketing investments as of H2 2021, in order to jump onto the market rebound.

In May 2022, the company launched a new TV ad, "Rituals of Performance", which has been aired on the Rai and Eurosport channels during the 2022 edition of the Giro d'Italia bicycle race.

As Mr. Paolo Calabresi, Enervit's marketing director of the Sport&Fitness Division, said in a recent interview, this TV ad was meant to highlight the strong, long-standing partnership with the Italian Cycling Federation and the Man and Woman national cycling teams, which had been renewed for the next three years.

Moreover, it is worth noting that the Enervit brand boasted high visibility in various sports competitions in 2021, thanks to the successes achieved by the Italian national cycling team and Tadej Pogacar's (UAE Team Emirates) second-straight victory of the Tour de France.

Meanwhile, the group continued sponsoring endurance events, such as a 100km ultramarathon in Ancona in February and the RomaOstia 2022 in March. Moreover, Enervit still supports extreme sports challenges, such as Hervé Barmasse's climb in December 2021. The alpinist tried to climb the Rupal (a 4,500m-high rock side in the Nanga Parabat, Himalaya) in a never-attempted way, but was forced to give up due to the extremely adverse weather conditions.

Estimates and valuation

Outlook on 2022

The management said that sales in the first few months of 2022 were in line with their forecasts and the brand enhancement strategy was set to continue.

Nevertheless, the group has been facing a steady increase in raw materials, packaging and energy costs. Therefore, they were forced to increase prices at the beginning of 2022, also by levering on Enervit's premium-price positioning.

For the time being, uncertainty and volatility remain high, due to the impacts of the Russo-Ukrainian crisis and of a possible resurgence of the Covid pandemic, including the related supply chain disruptions.

Although no impacts on Enervit's operations have been recorded, the management could not rule out possible impacts on the Italian BU sales due to a general slowdown. In any case, the online sales channel is expected to mitigate these headwinds.

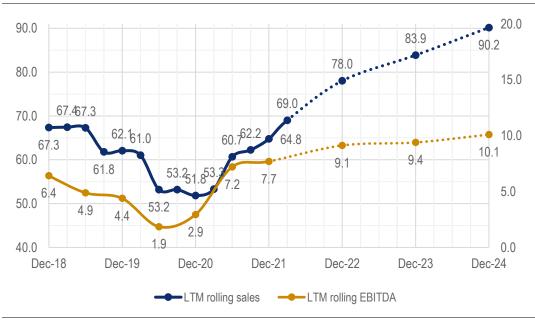

Our 2022-24 estimates

FY 21 results were stronger than expected and confirmed the fast post-Covid recovery, which has emerged roughly one year ahead of our expectations. Moreover, a first fast glimpse at Q1 22 sales captures a very healthy business development.

Q1 2022 sales were particularly strong as they recorded another 29.5% Y/Y increase, mainly driven by Indirect sales in Italy (+35.2% Y/Y), despite the challenging comparison base. In particular, as we point out in the chart below, the Q1 22 "annualised" sales (rolling sum of the previous four quarter sales) reached the highest level since FY 2018. Among the business lines, we note that the Indirect sales in Italy have largely exceeded the pre-Covid level.

Sales and EBITDA: annualised rate Q4 18/Q1 22 and FY22/24 projections (EUR m)

Source: Banca Akros on company data

We expect revenues to benefit from both higher volumes and price increases throughout FY 22, with the latter needing to offset the input cost inflation. As such, we expect revenues to grow by 20.5% Y/Y (vs. the previous 9.3% Y/Y), with an implied ~18% Y/Y growth, excluding Q1 22.

Profitability-wise, we understand that the healthy EBITDA margin reached in FY 21 (13.1% after IFRS-16) was supported by the strong rebound in the top line, a favourable product mix and low investments in marketing.

By contrast, the sharp increase in the raw materials, packaging and energy costs is expected to weigh on FY 22 profitability, as are the resumed marketing investments needed to keep a competitive edge in a growing but challenging market. Although we have increased our FY 22 EBITDA margin to 11.7% (vs. our previous 10%), we highlight that it compares with a FY21 EBITDA margin of 13.1% (vs. our 10.2% assumption).

Starting from 2023, we assume a progressive reduction in growth rates, with +7.5% Y/Y in 2023 and in 2024. We confirm our prudential view on profitability, with the FY 23e/24e EBITDA margin standing at 11.2% and a less-than-proportional growth in EBITDA vis-à-vis the top line.

ESG Focus

Enervit has published its first document, called the "Document of commitments" ("Carta degli Impegni"), outlining its commitment to integrating sustainability principles into the group's operations. The document describes actions under three main areas: Environment, People and Community, Innovation and Transparency.

The group boasts a number of certifications, such as the UNI EN ISO 9001 (on quality management system), UNI EN ISO 14001 (on environment management system), BRC (food safety), IFOS (International Fish Oil Standards), Friend of the Sea and Orivo (quality and sustainability of omega-3 supplements) and BIO (biological production). Enervit also complies with the ISO 26000 guidelines as regards Corporate social responsibility.

Environment

Enervit runs two production plants in Zelbio (since 1973) and in Erba, inaugurated in 2015 and completed in 2019 by doubling the production line. The latter is involved in "Erba verde", a green project aimed to minimise the impact of operations on the environment and the local community. In particular, the main actions include:

- ✓ The recovery of by-products as "fuel" for the production of biomethane;
- ✓ The installation of systems on chillers that reduce the consumption of natural gas by more than 48K Scm p.a.;
- ✓ The installation of a wastewater treatment system with a capacity of more than 2m litres p.a.;
- √ The recovery of pallets;
- √ The installation of water dispensers to avoid the consumption of 70K bottles p.a.

Enervit is also studying new initiatives, including:

- ✓ A cleaning system based on dry ice to replace water and reduce wastewater;
- ✓ A recycling system for tanks to reduce plastic consumption by ~20t p.a.
- ✓ Increasing the purchase of energy from renewable sources, with the aim to reach 100% of the need covered by green electricity in the next few years;

The group pays a great deal of attention to packaging, as it is committed to seeking sustainable solutions while maintaining the product quality:

- ✓ FSC (Forest Stewardship Council) certification for all boxes and food package made of paper;
- ✓ Clear and easy-to-read instructions to sort the product package correctly;
- ✓ Development of new closures aimed to reduce the dispersion (particularly of gels) in the environment.

People and community

Enervit has invested strongly in the quality of the workplace to enhance good working conditions. Moreover, the group has consistently followed its mission as a "Positive Nutrition Company" by offering its employees products, advice and initiatives to maintain a good lifestyle.

In particular, Enervit encourage its employees to take part in some of the most renowned sponsored events, namely the Maratona dles Dolomites, the Nove Colli and the Vasaloppet, the world's most famous cross-country skiing competition held in Sweden.

On top of some corporate welfare initiatives that have already been in place for a couple of years - including a fund to support the education of employees' children (from nursery school to university), a complementary healthcare policy and an insurance policy covering accidents, the group launched a number of tools in 2021 to improve the work-life balance of the workers, such as a flexible work schedule and paid leaves.

As regards the impact on local community, Enervit increased its commitment to improving the employment quality in the Como province. In particular, along with the start of the operations at the new Erba plant in 2015, Enervit signed an "agreement on competitivity" with the Lombardy Region, which has led to a 21% increase in the permanent workforce in the company.

Finally, we note that the group is supporting social-friendly initiatives across its supply chain, regardless of the geographic distance, which include the cooperation with:

- ✓ Selyn, a Sri Lanka-based cooperative certified by the World Fair Trade Organisation that made sustainable bags for the Maratona dles Dolomites in 2022;
- ✓ Obiettivo3, a project launched by Alex Zanardi to support handicapped athletes;
- ✓ The National Alpine Rescue Corps, of which Enervit is official partner.
- ✓ Banco Alimentare.

Innovation and transparency

Enervit boasts a 40-year tight cooperation with Equipe Enervit, a team of doctors, researchers, biologists and nutritionists that advise athletes on nutrition and supplements. The group's R&D department works with the Equipe to develop new products to keep up with the latest "nutrition strategies".

Furthermore, Enervit complies with market best practises in order to communicate to customers the products' characteristics fairly and transparently. In this respect, it has joined the Unione Italian Food and the European Specialist Sports Nutrition Alliance as a way to increase the consumers' trust in the company and its products.

Both Enervit's plants in Zelbio and Erba are BRC certified, i.e. they comply with the food safety standards issued by the Global Standard for Food Safety and are recognised by the Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI). The company has also joined the Global Organization for EPA and DHA to guarantee that the tightest standards in the industry on Omega-3 are fulfilled.

ESN Recommendation System

The ESN Recommendation System is Absolute. It means that each stock is rated based on total return, measured by the upside/downside potential (including dividends and capital reimbursement) over a 12-month time horizon. The final responsible of the recommendation of a listed company is the analyst who covers that company. The recommendation and the target price set by an analyst on one stock are correlated but not totally, because an analyst may include in its recommendation also qualitative elements as market volatility, earning momentum, short term news flow, possible M&A scenarios and other subjective elements.

The ESN spectrum of recommendations (or ratings) for each stock comprises 5 categories: Buy (B), Accumulate (A), Neutral (N), Reduce (R) and Sell (S).

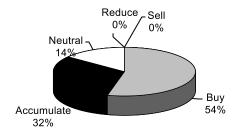

Furthermore, in specific cases and for a limited period of time, the analysts are allowed to rate the stocks as Rating Suspended (RS) or Not Rated (NR), as explained below.

Meaning of each recommendation or rating:

- Buy: the stock is expected to generate total return of over 15% during the next 12-month
- Accumulate: the stock is expected to generate total return of 5% to 15% during the next 12-month
- Neutral: the stock is expected to generate total return of -5% to +5% during the next 12-month
- Reduce: the stock is expected to generate total return of -5% to -15% during the next 12-month
- Sell: the stock is expected to generate total return under -15% during the next 12-month
- Rating Suspended: the rating is suspended due to: a) a capital operation (take-over bid, SPO, etc.) where a Member of ESN is or could be involved with the issuer or a related party of the issuer; b) a change of analyst covering the stock; c) the rating of a stock is under review by the Analyst.
- Not Rated: there is no rating for a stock when there is a termination of coverage of the stocks or a company being floated (IPO) by a Member of ESN or a related party of the Member.

Note: a certain flexibility on the limits of total return bands is permitted especially during higher phases of volatility on the markets.
